

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

State and Federal Cost Share Programs

Through partnerships between USDA, Natural Resources Conservation Service, Farm Service Agency, ODNR, Division of Soil and Water, Ohio Public Works Commission, and the Pickaway Soil and Water Conservation District, State and Federal cost share programs have distributed over 2.0 million dollars to cooperators in Pickaway County during 2013 for installed Best Management Practices (BMPs). The programs include Conservation Reserve Program, Scioto River Watershed Conservation Reserve Enhancement Program, Environmental Quality Incentive Program, Wildlife Habitat Incentive Program, and annual conservation program rental payments.

Educational Program

The District's Education Program provided 1017 hands-on presentations to over 4000 youth demonstrating environmental issues and conservation of natural resources .

Other programs provided were: Cub Scouts, 4-H, home schools, Science Clubs, and other special events reaching additional youth and adult. The District sponsors the annual Area Five Envirothon, an outdoor natural resource education competition for High School students.

The District provides natural resource materials through its lending program including a Forestry Trunk, a Stream Quality Monitoring Trunk, Stream Table Model, Groundwater Model, the Enviroscope Model, and the Soil Tunnel. The District's web site, www.pickawayswcd.org, provides a portal to the internet through educational links.

The Pickaway Soil and Water Conservation District was organized under Ohio law, December 9, 1944. On April 14, 1945, the district was approved by referendum vote of the people and became the 32nd Soil and Water Conservation District in Ohio.

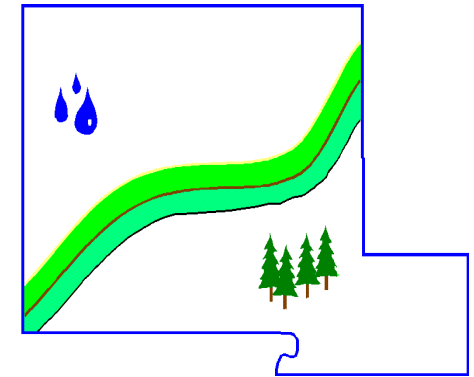

The Pickaway Soil and Water Conservation District, a political subdivision of the State of Ohio, is managed by five supervisors, who are elected by Pickaway County landowners. Supervisors serve without pay and are responsible for developing the local programs, obtaining and disbursing funds, and setting priorities. They also have the authority to hire district staff and to oversee all district activities.

All District programs are offered on a non-discriminatory basis without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, disability, political beliefs, marital or familial status, or handicap.
